

Web .NET developer. Boston, MA 1 year + (Extension expected)

Face to Face interview after successful phone interview.

Required skills:

Minimum of 1 year of experience working with DotNetNuke, including developing and customizing DNN modules.

Knowledge of SQL, ASP.NET, VB.NET and C#.

Experience using and integrating existing 3rd party DNN modules.

Experience building and maintaining Website maps using Google Maps APIs, with a focus on integrating different data sources and live databases.

Experience working with T-SQL (including the development of stored procedures, views and triggers)

Experience in performing thorough functional, systems, and regression testing of application changes.

Working experience with Internet Information Server (IIS), Enterprise Development including .Net, XML, Web Services, WCF and Microsoft Windows operating systems.

Experience in writing technical documentation for new and enhanced applications. Strong verbal and written communication skills. Must be able to understand high-level business requirements and work with team members to identify obstacles, find solutions and provide excellent customer service.

Preferred:

Installation and maintenance of DNN on web server

Experience with DNN in a Web Farm environment

Experience with front end technologies such as JavaScript, CSS, HTML, and AJAX

3+ years of experience in ASP.NET programming in VB and C#.

3+ years of experience using SQL Server 2008 R2.

Strong knowledge of database development.

Strong knowledge of browser compatibility issues, DOM, architectures and libraries

Experience with Web Accessibility Compliance

Thorough understanding of application development methodologies.

Comprehensive experience with structuring, developing, and implementing interactive corporate Web sites.

Experience in gathering and analyzing business requirements.

Daily tasks & activities:

Development of DNN modules

Conversion of ASP.NET functionality to DNN modules

Maintenance of existing pages and DNN modules

DNN administration